

and whipped Jackson some of the clubs in the country would hang up so much money on a purse for him and me, that I could easily either part with my shirt or my coat. There would have been a good deal of yellow dust sent over here from England making Marvin, and it could have all been kept and I could have had the big end of it if I figure I am $60,000 out on the fight.

Bob Fitzsimmons Surprised.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
BALTIMORE, May 31.—Bob Fitzsimmons, champion middle-weight of the world, who is at the Monumental Theatre this week with his comedy and athletic combination, said of the result of the Jackson-Slavin fight that he had been just a little surprised. He had seen Jackson fight in Australia and thought him a good man, but after the Corbett fight he had about come to the conclusion that Slavin was a shade better, though he knew that Jackson was not in condition when he fought Corbett. The fight moves Corbett up a peg in the estimation of the public. Fitzsimmons did not have a dollar bet on the fight.

JENNIE JUNE'S SON WEDS.

Takes for His Bride at Baltimore a Fellow-Student at Harvard.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BALTIMORE, May 31.—In Emanuel Protestant Episcopal Church yesterday Anna Louise Emory, daughter of Mr. Arthur Emory, and Mr. Herbert David Croly, son of Mrs. Croly, of New York, known in the literary world as "Jennie June," were married. Immediately afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Croly took the train for New York.

Miss Mary Lee Wilkins attended the bride, and Mr. Louis Evans Shippens, of New York, acted as best man. After a short stay at the bride's home, the couple will return to Cambridge, where both are taking a course at Harvard College. They will keep house there next year, and will continue their studies.

Jennie June arrived in Baltimore Sunday and returned to New York almost immediately after her son's wedding.

A GANG OF BOY BURGLARS.

Steve Brodie's Nephew in the Crowd
Corralled by Police.

There have been many petty burglaries in the sixth Ward recently, and to-day the police of the Elizabeth street station have in hand a choice collection of burglars, none of them more than eighteen years old, and some still in knickerbockers. One of their gang, Charlie O'Connor, was discovered yesterday by T. D. Thibsey, of Selchow & Righter, hidden in the toy factory at 390 Broadway.

The boy was frightened by a pair of hand-cuffs and owned up that he and Johnny Brodie, a nephew of the bridge jumper, living at 128 Worth street; Frank Buckley, 88 Baxter street; Daniel Armitage, 147 Leonard street; Tom Davis, and John Johnson, 101 Washington street, with several others, had organized the gang that had committed the recent burglaries. The boys whose names are given above were arrested, and detectives Charles and Mitchell, who directed the police investigation, were held for examination by Police Justice Duffy in the Town Court this morning.

Filled His Eyes with Pepper.
Samuel Beardmore, a student, living at 20 Columbia place, Brooklyn, cut his half-way at 2 o'clock this morning, two men jumped upon him and threw him to the floor. Beardmore fought hard, and the men threw a handful of pepper into his eyes and escaped.

The boys were held for examination by Police Justice Duffy in the Town Court this morning.

A BOY MURDERER ON TRIAL.

HELD UP CORONER SCHULZE.

The Three Assailants Discharged by Justice Welde.

The Coroner's Coachman Lashed Them and They Stoned the Coach.

The three men who were locked up in the Morrisania police station over night on a charge of having held up the carriage of the coroner Schulze and party on Westchester avenue last night were discharged before Justice Alfred Welde this morning. The coroner's coachman, with some neighbors, was on his way home from the North Bank races, when the coroner's carriage, in which was the coroner, the coachman, and two passengers, was stoned, shattering the windows and wounding the occupants of the carriage.

Mr. Josephine, engineer, reported to Mr. Platt, on his arrival, that the passengers had got out of the carriage and the coachman had been stoned. The coroner Schulze, or anybody else of his service, was present.

Neither the coroner Schulze nor anybody else of his service was present. The coroner Schulze, or anybody else of his service, was present.

The New York State delegation will start for Minneapolis in a body next Friday.

A special vestimentary of nine cars has been chartered by Secretary Conyon, of the State Committee, and Secretary Bellamy, of the Republican County Committee, and it will leave the Grand Central depot at 10:30 A. M.

Friday night seventeen men from Texas, several of them Mexican, camped at Port Huron, a eight miles from here. They claimed they were going to Johnson County to work for George Baxter's outfit, and that while Platt and Miller are now working for him, he has not yet paid them.

On Saturday morning, a tall, thin man, who somebody had identified as a member of the gang, threw out a $1 bill, but this was not discovered until the boys in my brother's wagon had let themselves out of the wagon.

The hat of a young man named Higgins was found in a shape of a knot in the pocket of the tall boy. This young boy jumped from my brother's wagon, and grasping the handle of the tall boy's horse, said that he had somebody in the tall boy's throw out a $1 bill, but this was not discovered until the boys in my brother's wagon had let themselves out of the wagon.

A policeman came along and arrested my brother, and the other two, and they were kept locked up over night.

Coroner Schulze sustained some serious wounds, who his friends were the coroner refuses to say.

THE MARCH TO MINNEAPOLIS.

Clarkeon and Fazett Sent Ahead to Boom Blaine.

New York's Delegation Will Start Friday for the Seat of War.

The movement of Republican politicians and state men toward Minneapolis has already begun, and during the next five or six days the migration will steadily increase.

John Jameson, chairman of the state delegation, and his wife, and their two sons, are already on the way. They left New York Saturday and will be on the road early to look over the situation and select a suitable site for the expansion of the Union depot, when it is decided to have an additional engine house.

Mr. Josephine, engineer, reported to Mr. Platt, on his arrival, that the passengers had got out of the carriage and the coachman had been stoned.

DEAD IN HIS ENGINE PIT.

Awful Fate of Engineer Desmond, Caught in the Mad Machinery.

John Desmond, thirty-three years old, of 531 East Sixteenth street, was mangled to death early this morning in the machinery of the T. New Bonding company, 540 East Twentieth street, where he was employed as engineer. How the accident occurred is not explained.

It was stated that Desmond, who was one of three engineers employed in the place, was alone in the engine room shortly before a o'clock and was supposed to have been working on the machinery when the accident occurred. It is thought that he was caught in a pulley, whirled around the sheet, and his body mangled by being crushed between the machinery and ceiling. His body is said to have been found in the pit by another engineer at a quarter past 12 o'clock. The company's manager returned to the engine room to make an inspection, and revised all further information.

Mr. Josephine, engineer, reported to Mr. Platt, on his arrival, that the passengers had got out of the carriage and the coachman had been stoned.

Neither the coroner Schulze nor anybody else of his service was present.
